Fabric Department

Civil War Tribute Club

Kaye England has published a new book “A Civil War Legacy”. It is a Bread & Butter Society program called United Forever and features 12 new blocks to go along with the book. This is a different approach to a monthly club for several reasons. First, there are no kits to purchase! Each month you will be given the option to choose fat quarters and/or the new pattern for that month. There are a total of 24 blocks to choose from and alternate borders. In this way, our quilts will be totally personalized and as individual as each of us. Kaye England will be the featured guest speaker at this year’s Shipshewana Quilt Festival and to celebrate the occasion we have a special surprise to be announced later in 2011. The club meets on the 2nd Wednesday of the month at 10 AM, 3 PM, and 6 PM. We hope to see you there.

Do you remember Sock Monkeys? Of course you do! Almost everybody had or has a sock monkey made out of the Original Rockford Red Heel Monkey socks. The instructions for making these dolls are still included in each package of authentic Red Heel Monkey socks. Not only can you have your Sock Monkey in the original brown heather but they now come in blue heather and in pink heather in a wide range of sizes to fit all of the feet and loving hands in your family.

Ladies Wear

The days are starting to get a little nicer and we don’t need such a warm coat when we’re out running those errands. Try on a Lakin & McKey Trading Co. Berber Lined Vest. We’re convinced you’ll be ready for whatever the weather throws at you!

For the Home

It's beginning to look a lot like Spring outside and Easter is just around the corner. For most of us Spring also signals Spring Cleaning. For me that means it's time for a different color in my house from the colors of fall and winter. What better than some yummy pastel colors for in the kitchen? It's pretty well known that "The Heart of the Home is in the Kitchen, so take a look at the wonderful Spring pastel dish cloths and towels new from DII. Your kitchen -- what better place to add a splash of color?

A Yummy Easter Treat

- 1 bag of white chocolate chips
- 1 bag of Chow Mein Noodles
- Green food coloring
- Jelly Beans

Melt white chips in microwave stirring several times until smooth and creamy. Add a few drops of food coloring and stir to blend. Add noodles and stir to evenly coat. Drop by the tablespoonful onto wax paper to form a bird nest with your coated noodles. Now place a few jellybeans in the center of your nest and let cool.

Take off of wax paper before serving.
